

Christmas is a time when people give a lot of gifts. Often times, what happens is that people merely exchange gifts with one another without them even planning it. I give one a gift, the other gives me a gift as well. With all these exchanges of gifts going on, Christmas is also a time to recall the exchange of gifts that transpired between God and humanity when He sent his only Son. We gave God our humanity, and God gave us his divinity. For this reason, we celebrate the fact that when God became flesh and dwelt among us, he gave us his divinity. This is a far better gift that we could possibly give God because when Jesus took on our flesh to become like now we have experience

To be sure
joy that we
here on earth
of the true
God wants to response to us, may we

one of us, we
the chance to
his divine life.
the Christmas
experience

is a foretaste
and lasting joy
give us. In God's love for like John the Baptist, testify to the light that Christ brings so that all might believe in Christ through us. As we continue our celebration, be a gift to someone, give joy to somebody that they may experience Christ who gave himself to us as his gift.

... Liturgy Team (you know who Lamba, for all the preparation and from the Season of Advent to Christmas. Grateful for your dedication in the service for the people of God. You are all awesome!

you are 😊) headed by Fr. Robain execution of all our liturgical celebrations

... YOU, our parishioners. Thank you for your presence, and for your generosity. May you continue to be a gift and a blessing to others.

On behalf of Fathers Lieu and Robain, and our parish staff, I wish you all a blessed Christmas.