

Awesome tidbits from Fr. Rey

TWENTY-FOURTH WEEK IN ORDINARY TIME

September 17-23, 2023

SHOUT OUT TO...

...to our liturgical ministers who attended last weekend's (September 9th) get-together. It's so amazing to see all of you gathered in one event to catch up with each other, meet new friends, and have fun! From the bottom of my heart, I thank you all for your generous hearts in sharing your talents, time, and resources to serve the people of God in our parish. Because of that ... you are all awesome 😊.

... to all of you (parishioners) for your generous donation on our last weekend's second collection to our brothers and sisters affected by the wild fire in Maui. God bless your generous hearts always. To all of you ...you are awesome!

OUR FEAST DAY IS COMING! Brace yourselves!

- ATTENTION. Calling all musicians, singers, dancers, athletes, comedians, and more! If you are gifted with a talent, come, and join our annual SFoA Got Talent show on Saturday, October 7th at 10:30AM. Please contact Leslie in the parish office to sign-up your act! All are welcome to watch the show!
- VOLUNTEERS. We need help to set-up, clean-up and/or to assist in other tasks that we might need before, during and after the feast day. Please sign up with our ushers after every Mass this weekend. 😊.
- Second Collection. This weekend our second collection will support those who would like to have their children educated in the Catholic school but are finding it financially challenging. For next weekend, it will be for St. Francis Fund to help our brothers and sisters in our surrounding community who are struggling to make both ends meet. I am grateful for your awesome generosity!

- Living the 'Season of Creation' Every Day: The Ecological Vision of Laudato Si. Hosted by our Social Justice Ministry. Saturday, September 30, presentation begins at 9:30am until 10:45am. Dr. Paul Schultz, an associate professor at Santa Clara University will be our guest speaker. Details are posted on the bulletin board, constant contact, and the website to register.
